

West Oahu Economic Development Association

West Oahu has undergone a miraculous transformation over the past ten years and will undergo further changes as the community evolves. The West Oahu Economic Development Association (WOEDA) is a private, non-profit 501(c)6 organization that was formed by local businesses to promote West Oahu as the best place for residents and visitors to live, work and play in Hawaii. WOEDA has a desire to be an influential force in the growth of this region by promoting economic development and business opportunities in West Oahu, and by enhancing the marketing efforts of its members.

Membership is open to all businesses, government entities, non-profit organizations, and student organizations that have an interest or stake in West Oahu (Waipahu West of the H-2 freeway to Kaena Point).
